Jessica assists clients with a broad range of litigation matters.

Before Fox Rothschild

Jessica began her career at Fox as a summer associate. During law school, she was a judicial intern for the Honorable Ellen Ceisler of the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia and for the Honorable Cynthia M. Rufe of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Additionally, Jessica was a lead editor for the Drexel Law Review and also competed in the American College of Bankruptcy LawMeet, a premiere negotiation competition.

Before law school, Jessica worked as a research specialist for the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and as a research assistant and lab technician for Drexel University's College of Medicine, focusing on memory testing and analysis for patients with dementia, Parkinson's disease and other rare neurodegenerative disorders. She was also a clinical trial associate at a pharmaceutical company.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Jessica volunteers for Campaign for Working Families Tax Clinic, filing tax returns for Philadelphia residents in the Point Breeze neighborhood of the city.
