Overview: Finding the Right Fit

In fashion, it's all about the fit. Whether you're a manufacturer, importer, designer or retailer, you need attorneys who understand your business, your needs and your goals. Fox Rothschild's Fashion Law Practice has the experience, innovation and creativity to create a perfect fit with your business.

From start-up to international, companies in the fashion industry are often confronted with numerous legal challenges that can affect products, business operations and profitability. In an industry as competitive as fashion, there is no substitute for experience, involvement, and commitment.

Our attorneys are adept at handling sophisticated matters for clients in all aspects of fashion, from textile and notions to retailer. We reside on the cutting edge of the industry through our ongoing involvement in trade associations such as the California Fashion Association (CFA) and the International Textile and Apparel Association (ITAA), by writing articles and speaking on legal issues affecting the industry. In a world of changing trends and fickle customers, our committed attorneys provide quick responses to your needs.

Achieving Your Business Goals

Our attorneys have run garment businesses and handled everything from hiring to supply chain, operations and imports – so we know your business from the inside out. Invite us in, and our counsel can add value to your brand cost effectively and quickly. We'll help you spot problems before they occur, find solutions for issues as they arise, and help you envision and achieve your future goals.

We offer clients advice and counsel in a variety of areas, and have the ability to utilize the talents of more than 450 attorneys practicing in 15 offices throughout the United States to help meet your brand's every legal need.
