

State and Local Tax

Overview

- Advice for multi-jurisdictional businesses
- Strong record with state and local agencies

Our team of multi-disciplined attorneys offers a powerful combination of technical expertise and courtroom experience to handle your state and local tax and litigation matters. We can advise you on tax planning to minimize state and local taxes – including income, sales, capital stock, or franchise taxes in connection with your business. We also represent clients before state agencies as well as local taxing authorities, leveraging our strong relationships and proven track record for results on your behalf.

Services

- tax planning for minimum impact of state and local income tax, including advice on conducting multi-jurisdictional business operations
- state and local tax collection matters
- offers in compromise
- tax liens, levies, innocent spouse
- trust fund recover penalty
- state corporate net income tax, capital stock/franchise tax
- state sales and use tax
- state personal income tax
- administrative tax appeals and trials

www.foxrothschild.com

"We offer personalized service and the resources to address all phases of tax controversy and litigation at state and local levels and resolve your individual situation to the best possible outcome."

Steve Levitt and Owen Knopping

Co-Chairs of the State & Local Tax Practice