

Avoid Legal Headaches With Fox's Guide to State Price Gouging Laws

Companies engaged in the sale of products or services related to the COVID-19 outbreak face a confusing patchwork of divergent state price gouging laws. Practices considered reasonable in one jurisdiction can be illegal in another. In addition, federal authorities have signaled through early prosecutions that they will aggressively enforce price gouging provisions of the national Defense Production Act.

The Justice Department has formed a COVID-19 Hoarding and Price Gouging Task Force and is actively prosecuting individuals alleged to have amassed N95 masks, sanitizer and other high-demand products for resale. At the same time, state prosecutors are pursuing thousands of consumer complaints of price gouging online and at brick-and-mortar sellers.

A Powerful Compliance Tool

To help businesses navigate this complex legal terrain, Fox Rothschild's White-Collar Criminal Defense & Regulatory Compliance Practice has created the National Price Gouging Laws Survey. This proprietary web-based application provides an up-to-date summary of price gouging enforcement in all 50 states and the District of Columbia, so businesses that offer products and services in multiple jurisdictions can avoid costly violations.

Tool features:

Convenient map-based navigation detailing each state's applicable legal statutes

Regulatory language and executive orders to empower businesses to confidently market their products and services throughout the U.S.
