Andrew leads a dynamic practice focused on real estate matters and a wide variety of litigation.

He handles a broad range of real estate matters which includes leading zoning and subdivision and land development projects. Andrew's real estate approval experience includes obtaining variances, conditional use approvals, special exceptions, and land development approvals for projects of all shapes and sizes. Andrew has led the approval process for projects such as, but not limited to, commercial and industrial developments, car dealerships, billboards and residential developments. Andrew also routinely litigates zoning appeals, land use appeals and tax appeals. He has successfully obtained zoning and land development approvals in numerous municipalities across Pennsylvania, including Bucks County, Montgomery County, Chester County, Delaware County, Berks County, and Adams County.*

 Results may vary depending on your particular facts and legal circumstances.*

Andrew also negotiates and handles all aspects of real estate transactions, such as drafting and negotiating purchase and sale agreements, lease agreements and easements.

Andrew has extensive experience with commercial litigation and related real estate matters, and has successfully tried numerous cases to verdict. Such cases include complex civil litigation matters, real estate disputes, tax appeals, and estate matters litigated in orphans' court.
