Darrell serves as the chair of the Entertainment Law Department. A prominent entertainment lawyer with more than 20 years' experience in entertainment law, Darrell focuses his practice on transactional law with an emphasis on the motion picture, television, music, theater and multimedia industries. As a testament to his effective brand-building strategies, Darrell is consistently listed among Hollywood's top dealmakers by national industry publications such as Variety and The Hollywood Reporter.

Darrell has aided and assisted clients in all areas of entertainment law, including:

- motion pictures
- television
- music
- theatre
- new media
- live-stage production
- touring
- literary property
- licensing agreements
- collaboration agreements
- partnerships
- incorporations
- merchandising
- intellectual property
- syndication
- literary book publishing
- executive employment agreements
- development agreements
- productions agreements
- distribution agreements

As a former singer and performer, Darrell has a deep understanding of the creative talent he represents, as well as the knowledge and savvy of a seasoned entertainment attorney.

Darrell's clients include diverse and visionary individuals and entities, reflecting his commitment to developing multimedia opportunities within the convergent climate of today's entertainment industry. His commitment to providing superior personal service has resulted in long-standing relationships with studio executives and creative personnel, representation of actors, writers, directors and producers associated with a variety of television programs and motion pictures including "NCIS," "Law & Order," "Curb Your Enthusiasm," "Entourage," "In Plain Sight," "Flash Forward," "Friday Night Lights," "Dancing with the Stars," "Randy Jackson Presents America's Best Dance Crew," Academy Award Winner "Crash," "RocknRolla," "Couples Retreat," "Notorious," "The Great Debaters," "Max Payne," "Jumping The Broom," "Think Like A Man," and "Green Lantern."

Darrell is the former managing partner of the firm's Los Angeles office.

Before Fox Rothschild

Darrell launched his own private practice in 1996, where he served as production counsel on television, cable and film projects. The firm expanded to Miller & Pliakas LLP in 2001, in which Darrell was a partner and co-founder. Darrell began his legal career with the national law firm Lord Bissell and Brook, where his practice included litigation and general corporate law, representing domestic and international companies, business executives, entertainment production companies and performing artists.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Darrell served on the Cincinnati Children's Theatre Board of Directors and on the Air Force Entertainment Liaison Board. A jazz and classical music enthusiast, Darrell is a frequent panelist and guest moderator of discussions relating to both the talent and institutional aspects of entertainment law. Darrell's book, The 16th Minute of Fame: An Insider's Guide for Maintaining Success Beyond 15 Minutes of Fame, was published in 2014, and subsequently led to Darrell's nomination for the prestigious NAACP Image Award in the category of Outstanding Literary Work—Debut Author.
