Before Fox Rothschild

Before joining Fox Rothschild, Erica spent several years in civil and commercial litigation as an associate at two Mid-Atlantic law firms. She also worked at a Philadelphia-based firm focused on real estate, business and commercial transactions and litigation. After graduating from law school, she worked as an associate attorney and title officer at Land Services USA, Inc., where she gained experience in multisite, multimillion-dollar commercial real estate transactions.

While in law school, Erica was a legal intern at the Nassau County Family Court in New York and a summer associate at an international law firm. She also served as the managing editor of the Journal of International Business and Law and was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.
