

Janet M. MacLeod, Ph.D.

Partner

jmacleod@foxrothschild.com

New York, NY

Tel: 212.905.2301

Fax: 212.692.0940

Janet is Chair of the firm's national Intellectual Property Department.

As a registered patent attorney, she focuses her practice on the worldwide acquisition and enforcement of patents in the pharmaceutical, biotechnology and chemical arts.

She has extensive experience in all areas of patent practice, including preparation, prosecution, and post-grant proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. Janet provides opinions on patentability, infringement, validity and freedom to operate and also conducts intellectual property due diligence reviews. She has experience in counseling clients on Hatch-Waxman and other patent-related FDA matters.

Janet has prepared and prosecuted patent applications and counseled clients on inventions relating to small molecule pharmaceuticals, recombinant therapeutic and diagnostic products, pharmacogenomics, nucleic acid amplification and sequencing methods, stem cells and antibodies.

Janet's representative matters include:

- Conducting freedom to operate analyses and providing product launch advice to mid-size U.S. pharmaceutical company
- Representing academic research institution in worldwide patent prosecution and licensing matters
- Representing biopharmaceutical company in IP due diligence analysis involving more than 1,000 patents and patent applications
- Representing biotechnology company in IP due diligence for proposed merger transaction valued at $1.6 billion.

Services

- Intellectual Property
- Emerging Companies & Venture Capital
- Patents
- Technology

Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining the firm, Janet was a partner with an international law firm.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Janet previously served as chairperson of the New York City Chapter of the Licensing Executives Society (U.S.A. and Canada).

Client Resources

America Invents Act: Micro Entity Status for Institutions of Higher Education

The Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (AIA) has created a new class of patent applicants designated as “micro entities” who are entitled to a 75 percent reduction in certain fees paid to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. In this podcast, Janet discusses the criteria applicants need in order to fall within either of two groups defined by the AIA in order to qualify as micro entities.

Listen to the Podcast

Bar Admissions

- New York
- U.S. Patent & Trademark Office

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of New York
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York
- U.S. District Court, Western District of New York
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Federal Circuit

Education

- Pace University School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 1997)
- Albert Einstein College of Medicine of Yeshiva University (Ph.D., 1990)
 - Molecular Pharmacology
- Albert Einstein College of Medicine of Yeshiva University (M.S., 1987)
 - Molecular Pharmacology
- Brown University (B.A., 1981)
 - Health and Society, Division of Biology and Medicine

Honors & Awards

- Named in IAM Patent 1000: The World's Leading Patent Professionals (2019-2023)
- "Recognized Practitioner" for Intellectual Property: Patents in New York by Chambers USA (2019)
- Named a "Life Sciences Star" for her outstanding patent work by LMG Life Sciences (2012-2022)
- Named to "Super Lawyers" by New York Super Lawyers and Law & Politics Magazine (2010)