Joe represents clients in a variety of litigation matters, including business litigation, complex commercial matters and labor and employment disputes.

Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining Fox, Joe was a litigation associate in the Los Angeles office of an international firm. He also worked at a boutique litigation firm defending national corporations in employment disputes. Before entering private practice, Joe worked as a Major League Baseball Players Association-certified player agent for the Beverly Hills Sports Council, where he engaged in extensive contract negotiation and salary arbitration.

While in law school, Joe served as an editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Entertainment Law Review.
