A licensed U.S. Customs broker and Certified Customs Specialist, Joseph is a logistics and international trade attorney who advises clients on:

- Anti-dumping and countervailing duty (AD/CVD) programs
- Cargo loss, theft and recovery
- Classification and valuation
- C-TPAT programs
- Duty drawbacks and protests
- Fines, penalties and forfeitures
- Free trade agreements and preference programs
- Foreign trade zones and duty deferral programs
- Import/export compliance
- Intellectual property protection
- Prior disclosures
- Regulatory and C-TPAT audit
- Rules of origin and country of origin marking

He regularly counsels clients on various matters pertaining to Customs and trade, representing both domestic and foreign importers and exporters in multiple aspects of international trade transactions. Joseph works diligently and closely with clients to identify and implement systems aimed at maximizing landed cost savings through duty reduction or deferral, as well as utilization of trade preference programs. Joseph also works alongside clients to assist them through regulatory and C-TPAT program audits; fines, penalties and forfeiture actions; and the filing and perfection of prior disclosures.
