Melanie is a skilled attorney who represents clients in commercial and employment litigation, as well as contractual disputes and torts.

She has handled state, federal and appellate litigation on behalf of healthcare entities, insurers, small to medium-sized companies and individuals. And she has represented both plaintiffs and defendants.

As a Certified Information Privacy Professional, US (CIPP/US) certified by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP), Melanie also understands the federal and state privacy landscape and the limits placed on the collection and use of data by private companies. She can assist with class action privacy and security litigation and serve as a trusted advisor to companies in need.
