

Nicholas T. Solosky

Partner

Washington, DC

Tel: 202.696.1460

Fax: 202.461.3102

nsolosky@foxrothschild.com

Nicholas's practice is concentrated on national government contracts and construction related matters with a strong emphasis on federal procurement issues. He has extensive experience advising clients with respect to a wide-range of risk management and dispute resolution matters, including: Government agency suspension and debarment proceedings; Federal bid protests and debriefing strategies; Buy American and Buy America Act compliance issues; Federal ethics and compliance training; and Small Business Administration set-aside program guidance and size protests. Additionally, Nicholas's federal construction litigation practice focuses on representing contractors and the owners of regional and national construction companies in all manners of private and public projects, including contract negotiations and litigation.

Nicholas also conducts a diverse litigation practice in both federal and state courts, with an emphasis on representing clients in complex commercial litigation. His experience includes client counseling, litigation, trial, alternative dispute resolution, and a strong appellate practice.

As a seasoned litigator, Nicholas has successfully represented corporate clients in a wide variety of circumstances, including the following representative matters:

- Successful intervention in and defeat of a Government Accountability Office (GAO) bid protest challenging the presumptive awardee, Burns & McDonnell Engineering Co. Inc.'s award of a $20 million Indefinite Duration/Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) Multiple Award Task Order Contract (MATOC) for Architect/Engineering services for the U.S. Naval Facilities Engineer Command Pacific (NAVFAC Pacific).
- Successful representation to verdict in favor of a landscape maintenance organization with respect to a breach of contract matter concerning the design and construction of a golf course and preserve
- Securing dismissal of a Federal District Court complaint based on the Southern District of New York's first-to-file doctrine
- Preparing a legal opinion for a lithium-ion battery manufacturer concerning Buy America Act compliance
- Representation of commercial building contractors with respect to bid protests and size protests before the Government Accountability Office and Small Business Administration, respectively
- Defending an employee of a leading geotechnical construction firm in suspension and debarment hearings before the Environmental Protection Agency

- Counsel for a national accounting firm in fraud and breach of contract matters in arbitration proceedings across the country
- Representation of a telecommunications company in a Federal District Court action concerning FCC telephone number hoarding regulations
- Securing dismissal with respect to claims brought against an environmental technology company concerning a fuel leak in an underground storage tank facility
- Successful defense of international automobile manufacturers in many actions alleging civil and statutory claims
- Case dismissal of a breach of contract action brought against a venture capital firm brought in Federal District Court
- Representation of global insurance companies with respect to a wide variety of cases involving coverage claims and bad faith disputes
- Representation of regional manufacturer of commercial car-carriers with respect to product liability claims in state court; and
- Representation of an authentic solutions provider in a civil suit brought by a former employee alleging harassment and constructive discharge

Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining the firm, Nicholas was an associate in a large international law firm's global litigation group. While in law school, Nicholas was a Chancellors' Scholar at the University of North Carolina School of Law and a staff writer for the North Carolina Law Review.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Nicholas has been involved with the Homeless Advocacy Project, a non-profit organization providing pro bono legal services to homeless individuals in the Greater Philadelphia area. Additionally, he previously served as pro bono legal counsel to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania Prisoner Civil Rights Panel.

Client Resources

Federal Government Contracts & Procurement Blog

Nicholas contributes to the Federal Government Contracts & Procurement blog, addressing current and future issues affecting federal contractors and procurement professionals in both the Washington, D.C., area and throughout the United States.

View Blog

Practice Areas

- Federal Government Contracts & Procurement
- Construction
- Litigation
- Appellate Practice
- Cannabis Law

Bar Admissions

- New Jersey
- Pennsylvania
- Maryland
- District of Columbia

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania
- U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey

Education

- University of North Carolina (J.D., 2004)
- Villanova University (B.A., magna cum laude, 2001)

Board of Directors

- Design Build Institute, Board Member