Bob provides strategic labor and employment guidance to clients, including medical device firms, multifacility health care providers and manufacturers, in connection with employment claims, human resource management issues, union avoidance, collective bargaining and labor arbitrations.

For more than 30 years, Bob has successfully represented employers in proceedings before state and federal courts, the National Labor Relations Board, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Minnesota Department of Human Rights and other courts and agencies.

In addition, Bob advises employers on the management of discrimination, harassment, and whistleblower allegations, drafts effective human resource policies and materials and counsels clients in individual and group terminations, internal investigations and performance management issues.

Bob serves as the regional practice lead for the firm's Labor & Employment Department in Minneapolis.
