Thomas is a trusted legal advisor to clients around the world, including high-net-worth individuals, family offices, financial institutions, private funds, hedge funds, emerging companies, developers, sponsors, and small to mid-size private companies.

Skilled with general corporate law and international business transactions, Thomas is Board Certified by the Florida Bar as an expert in International Law.

Fluent in Spanish, Thomas often assists clients with international business transactions involving the United States and Latin America. He is experienced with private real estate and debt funds, mergers and acquisitions (primarily inbound), joint ventures, in-bound structuring of foreign investments, and commercial contracts.

Thomas also handles asset-based and real estate financing matters for institutional and private lenders, including financial institutions, hedge funds, private debt funds, and foreign investors and sponsors. He also handles transactional real estate matters, including the acquisition, financing and leasing of multi-family, mixed-use, condominium, retail and office properties.

Thomas also has experience representing clients in partnership and shareholder disputes, assisting with litigation strategy and providing litigation support. Foreign sponsors, foreign family offices and foreign investors often seek out his general counsel services.
