Wendy advises individuals and businesses in a wide range of estate planning and tax matters.

She focuses her practice on strategic planning for the transition of wealth from one generation to the next and on business succession planning. She also has a depth of experience in handling tax controversies, advising and representing individuals and businesses before the IRS.

Wendy currently serves as the Administrative Partner for Taxation and Wealth Planning in the Princeton Office. Among the services she provides to clients are:

- complex estate and gift planning
- estate and trust administration
- federal and state tax controversies
- tax issues of nonprofit organizations

Wendy is also a frequent lecturer on various tax, estate and probate topics. She presents seminars for community organizations and professional education programs for attorneys and accountants.

Before Fox Rothschild

Wendy served as judicial clerk for the Honorable Barry T. Albin, an Associate Justice of the New Jersey Supreme Court.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Wendy is a member of the Board of Trustees of Daytop Village of New Jersey, a charitable organization providing comprehensive substance abuse treatment and education programs for adolescents and young adults.

In addition, Wendy serves on the board of directors of Dress for Success Mercer County, a non-profit that empowers women to achieve economic independence by providing a support network, professional attire and development tools to help them thrive.

She previously served on the Advisory Committee of Crawford House, a charitable organization providing transitional housing and treatment to women in early recovery from addiction to drugs and alcohol.
